Pursuant to the notarized deed received by the notary Stijn Raes, at Gent, substituting his colleague, the notary Kim Lagae, unable to attend at Brussels, on May 15, 2020, the board of directors increased the share capital of an amount of twelve million seven hundred thirty-eight thousand and six hundred thirty-two euros and ninety-four cents (€ 12,738,632.94) by issuing twenty million one hundred sixty-two thousand nine hundred twenty-four shares (20,162,924) new shares at a subscription price of (rounded) € 0.632 per share (or € 12,738,632.94 in aggregate), fully paid up in cash

Pursuant to the notarized deed received by the notary Stijn Raes, at Gent, on January 26, 2021, it has been noted that the capital increase, within the framework of the authorised capital, decided by the board of directors on January 21, 2021, has been realised in the amount of twenty-four million nine hundred and ninety-nine thousand nine hundred and thirty cents (EUR 24,999,999.30) (issue premium included) through the issue of twenty-seven million seven hundred and seventy-seven thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven (27,777,777) new shares, fully paid up by means of a cash contribution, issued at a price of ninety cents (EUR 0.90) per share, comprising the accounting par value of the existing shares, i.e. EUR 0.7608 (rounded) per share, increased by an issue premium for the balance.

Article 6: Authorised capital

The board of directors is authorised to increase the share capital of the company on one or several occasions by a maximum aggregate amount of ninety million one hundred and thirty-two thousand sixty-seven euros and sixty-nine cents (EUR 90,132,067.69).

The board of directors may increase the share capital by contributions in cash or in kind, by capitalisation of reserves, whether available or unavailable for distribution, and capitalisation of issue premiums, with or without the issuance of new shares, with or without voting rights, that will have the rights as will be determined by the board of directors. The board of directors is also authorised to use this authorisation for the issuance of convertible bonds or subscription rights, bonds with subscription rights or other securities.

This authorisation is valid for a period of five years as from the date of publication in the Annexes to the Belgian Official Gazette of an extract of the minutes of the extraordinary general shareholders' meeting of the company held on May 27, 2021.

In the event of a capital increase decided by the board of directors within the framework of the authorised capital, all issue premiums booked, if any, will be accounted for in accordance with the provisions of these articles of association.

The board of directors is authorised, when exercising its powers within the framework of the authorised capital, to restrict or cancel, in the interest of the company, the preferential subscription rights of the shareholders. This restriction or cancellation of the preferential subscription rights can also be done in favour of members of the personnel of the company or of its subsidiaries, or in favour of one or more persons other than members of the personnel of the company or of its subsidiaries.

The board of directors is authorised, with the right of substitution, to amend the articles of association, after each capital increase that has occurred within the framework of the authorised capital, in order to bring them in conformity with the new situation of the share capital and the shares.

Article 7: New rights issue - Preferential subscription right - New rights issue to the benefit of the personnel

The decision to increase the share capital is taken by the general shareholders' meeting or, as the case may be, the board of directors, within the framework of the authorised capital, subject to observance of the provisions of the Belgian Companies and Associations Code and of these articles of association.

The general shareholders' meeting or, as the case may be, the board of directors, within the framework of the authorised capital, determines the issuance price and issuance conditions for the new shares upon proposal of the board of directors.

In the event the new shares are issued with an issue premium, the issue premium must be immediately paid-up in full upon subscription to the shares.

All issue premiums booked will be accounted for in one or more separate accounts as net equity on the liabilities side of the company's balance sheet and will be subscribed by contributions actually paid up in cash or in kind, other than in industry, on the occasion of the issue of shares or profit shares. These issue premiums may only be reduced in execution of a regular decision of the company in accordance with the Code of Companies and Associations.

Upon every increase of the share capital, the shares subscribed to in cash must first be offered to the shareholders in accordance with the applicable legal provisions.

The preferential subscription right can be limited or cancelled in the interest of the company by the general shareholders' meeting or, as the case may be, the board of directors, within the framework of the authorised capital, in accordance with the relevant legal provisions.

The general shareholders' meeting, or as the case may be, the board of directors within the framework of the authorised capital, may decide to increase the share capital to the benefit of the personnel of the company or its subsidiaries, subject to observance of the provisions of the Belgian Companies and Associations Code.

Article 8: Decrease of share capital

The company may decrease the share capital in accordance with the relevant legal provisions.

TITLE III: SHARES – OTHER SECURITIES

Article 9: Nature of the securities

Shares that are not fully paid-up are in registered form. Fully paid-up shares and other securities are in registered form, in dematerialised form or, to the extent allowed by law and the relevant issuance conditions of the relevant securities, in another form, at the discretion of the relevant holder of such shares or such securities. Any holder of securities may request at any time and at his/her/its expense that his/her/its fully paid-up securities be converted into another form, to the extent allowed by the law and the relevant issuance conditions of such securities.

Dematerialised securities are represented by an entry on an account, in the name of the owner or the holder, with a certified account holder or with a settlement institution. The transfer of dematerialised securities is registered from one account to another.

The register of registered shares and the register of other registered securities, as the case may be, can be kept electronically. Each holder of securities can consult the register with respect to his/her/its securities. The board of directors can appoint a third party of its choice to keep this electronic register.

All recordings in the share register and the registers of other registered securities, including transfers and conversions, can be validly made on the basis of documents or instructions submitted electronically or via any other means by the transferor, the transferee and/or the holder of the securities, as applicable.

The general shareholders' meeting may decide to carry out a share split or a share consolidation, subject to observance of the rules and majorities required for an amendment to the articles of association in accordance with the Belgian Companies and Associations Code.

Article 10: Shares not paid up in full - Requirement to pay up shares

The undertaking to pay-up a share in full is unconditional and indivisible.

If shares which have not been paid-up in full belong to several persons undividedly, each of them is liable for the payment of the entire amount of the called payments due.

Additional payment or payment in full is called by the board of directors at the time it determines. Notice thereof is given to the shareholders by registered letter or, for shareholders who have communicated their e-mail address to the company in accordance with the provisions of the Belgian Companies and Associations Code, by e-mail, indicating the bank account to which the payment should be made, to the exclusion of all other methods of payment, by means of wire transfer or cash deposit. The shareholder is in default by the mere lapse of the term determined in the notice and owes interest to the company at the legal interest rate effective at that time, plus two percent.

As long as the calls for payments on a share that are due have not been made in accordance with this provision, the exercise of the rights attached to the share concerned are suspended.

Earlier payments on shares cannot be made without the prior permission of the board of directors.

Article 11: Indivisibility of the securities

Securities are indivisible vis-à-vis the company.

In case securities belong to multiple holders of rights in rem, are pledged, or in case the rights attached to the securities are subject to an undivided ownership, usufruct or any other manner of division of the rights attached to such securities, the board of directors can suspend all rights attached to such securities until one person has been identified towards the company as the holder of those securities.

All notices, writs and other notifications by the company will occur validly and exclusively, as the case may be, to the person appointed as owner vis-à-vis the company, or to the common representative so appointed.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, and unless a will or an agreement provides otherwise, the usufructuary of securities shall exercise all the rights attached to those securities.

Article 12: Distrain

Heirs, creditors, or other rightful claimants of a shareholder may in no circumstances intervene in the management of the company, nor cause any distraint to be imposed on the goods and securities of the company, nor pursue the liquidation of the company and the distribution of its assets.

In exercising their rights, they must abide by the balance sheets and inventories of the company and comply with the decisions of the general shareholders' meeting.

Article 13: Issue of bonds, subscription rights and other securities giving right to shares

The company may issue mortgage bonds or other bonds by resolution of the board of directors and on such conditions as it shall determine.

The general shareholders' meeting or the board of directors, acting within the framework of the authorised capital, may issue convertible bonds, bonds repayable into shares, subscription rights, or any other financial instrument giving an entitlement to shares.

The general shareholders' meeting or the board of directors, acting within the framework of the authorised capital, may, in the interest of the company, restrict or cancel the preferential subscription rights of the shareholders in accordance with the relevant legal provisions, including in favour of one or more specified persons other than members of the personnel of the company or of its subsidiaries.

In accordance with applicable law, holders of shares without voting rights, profit certificates without voting rights, convertible bonds, subscription rights or certificates which were issued with cooperation of the company have the right to attend shareholders' meetings, but only in a consultative capacity.

TITLE IV: TRANSPARENCY OBLIGATIONS

Article 14: Transparency obligation

Each natural or legal person acquiring or transferring voting securities of the company, whether or not representing the share capital, must notify the company and the Financial Services and Markets Authority of the number and percentage of securities owned directly or indirectly by him alone or in concert with one or more other persons, as soon as the percentage of the voting rights attached to these securities reach three percent (3%) or more of the total number of voting rights at the moment when the circumstances arise that require a notification.

Such notification is also required each time, as a result of an acquisition, a threshold of five percent (5%) and a multiple of five percent (5%) is reached, and when the number of voting rights drops below the aforementioned thresholds as a result of a transfer.

The notification must be done within the term and in the manner as provided by applicable law.

Article 15: Voting rights

In accordance with the applicable legal provisions, no one may participate to the voting at the general shareholders' meeting for more votes than the votes attached to shares that have been notified by him at least 20 days before the date of the general shareholders' meeting in accordance with the articles of association and the legislation regarding transparency notifications.

TITLE V: ACQUISITION AND DISPOSAL OF TREASURY SHARES

Article 16: Acquisition and disposal of treasury shares

The company may acquire, dispose of or pledge its own shares, profit certificates or any certificates relating thereto subject to the compliance with the relevant legal provisions.

TITLE VI: GOVERNANCE AND REPRESENTATION

Article 17: Powers of the board of directors

The company has opted for a one-tier management model whereby the board of directors has the authority to carry out all actions that are useful or serve to achieve the corporate purpose of the company, with the exception of those that according to law are reserved to the general shareholders' meeting.

Article 18: Composition of the board of directors

The company is governed by a board of directors, acting as collective body and consisting of at least three (3) directors.

If a legal entity is appointed director it must appoint a permanent representative charged with the performance of the mandate in the name of and for the account of the legal entity director.

The directors are appointed by the general shareholders' meeting.

The term of their mandate shall in any event not exceed four (4) years.

Unless the relevant appointment resolution provides otherwise, the term of their mandate shall run from the general shareholders' meeting at which they are appointed to the ordinary general meeting in the financial year in which the term of their mandate expires in accordance with the appointment resolution.

The directors can be dismissed by the general shareholders' meeting in accordance with the applicable legal provisions.

A director whose mandate has ended may be re-appointed.

Should the mandate of a director become vacant, for any reason whatsoever, the remaining directors shall have the right to temporarily fill such vacancy (co-optation). The next general shareholders' meeting must confirm the mandate of the co-opted director; if confirmed, the co-opted director completes the mandate of his/her/its predecessor, unless the general shareholders' meeting decides otherwise. In the absence of confirmation, the mandate of the co-opted director ends at the end of the general shareholders' meeting, without prejudice to the regularity of the composition of the board of directors up to that moment in time.

In case of more than one vacancy, the remaining directors shall have the right to fill all such vacancies simultaneously. As long as the general shareholders' meeting or the board of directors, for any reason whatsoever, does not fill the vacancy, the directors of whom the mandate has ended will remain in function if this is needed for the board of directors to maintain the minimum number of directors as required by applicable law and the articles of association.

Article 19: Remuneration

The general shareholders' meeting decides whether the mandate of a director will be remunerated or not, by granting a fixed and/or variable remuneration.

The amount will be determined by the general shareholders' meeting and will be accounted for as a general expense of the company.

Article 20: Chairman

The board of directors will appoint a chairman amongst its members.

The chairman, or if the chairman is absent, a director appointed by the other directors present, shall chair the meetings of the board of directors.

Article 21: Conflicts of interest

If a director has a direct or indirect financial interest in accordance with Article 7:96 of the Belgian Companies and Associations Code, which is contrary to a decision or transaction that falls within the powers of the board of directors, the provisions of Article 7:96 of the Belgian Companies and Associations Code must be complied with by the director concerned, as well as by the board of directors in its deliberations and resolutions.

If more than one director finds himself in this position, and applicable law prohibits them from participating in the discussions or voting in connection therewith, the resolutions can be validly passed by the remaining directors, even if in these circumstances more than half of the directors are no longer present or validly represented.

Article 22: Convening of meetings of the board of directors

The board of directors meets whenever the interest of the company so requires, as well as any time two directors so request.

The board of directors shall be convened by the chairman. If the chairman has not convened the board of directors within 14 days as from such request of the directors, the directors who requested a meeting may validly convene the meeting.

The notice of meeting will mention the place, date, hour and agenda for the meeting and be sent out at least one week prior to the meeting by letter, telefax or any other written (possibly electronic) means.

When all the directors are present or validly represented, the valid convening of the meeting cannot be challenged.

Article 23: Meetings of the board of directors

The meetings of the board of directors are chaired by the chairman.

In the absence of the chairman, the meeting is chaired by another director.

The board of directors can only validly deliberate and resolve on matters appearing on the agenda and only provided that at least half of its members are present or represented at the meeting. If this quorum requirement is not met at a first meeting, a second meeting of the board of directors may be convened which will validly deliberate and decide regardless of the number of directors present or represented, on the understanding that at least two (2) directors must be present, either physically at the meeting or by telecommunication means.

The requirement to be present shall not apply to resolutions in which the majority of the members of the board of directors would not participate in accordance with Article 7:96 of the Belgian Companies and Associations Code with regard to conflicts of interest, but provided that the majority of the other directors are present or represented at this meeting.

The board of directors can only validly deliberate and resolve on matters not appearing on the agenda if all members of the board of directors are present at the meeting and have consented thereto.

This consent is assumed to have been given if no objection is recorded in the minutes.

Any director who cannot be present in person at a meeting may participate in the deliberation and voting with the aid of telecommunication means such as telephone or videoconference, subject to the condition that all participants to the meeting can communicate directly with all other participants.

Any director may instruct one of his colleagues merely by letter, telegram, telex, telefax, or any other written communication means to represent him at a specified meeting of the board of directors and to vote for him and in his place. A director giving such instructions is regarded as being present at the meeting. A director can represent several of his fellow members of the board of directors.

Resolutions of the board of directors are passed by majority vote, unless otherwise required by the articles of association or applicable law.

The resolutions of the board of directors may be taken by unanimous written resolution of all directors, with the exception of those resolutions for which the articles of association exclude this possibility (as the case may be).

Article 24: Minutes of the board of directors

Minutes are kept of the resolutions of the board of directors, which shall be kept at the registered office of the company and are signed by the chairman and in his absence by the director chairing the meeting and by at least the majority of the board members present.

Copies and excerpts of minutes to be submitted in court or elsewhere shall be validly signed by two directors acting jointly, or by the director to whom powers of the day-to-day management have been delegated.

Article 25: Special committees

The board of directors shall have the power and, to the extent required by applicable law, the obligation to establish, in its midst and under its responsibility, one or more advisory committees, such as (but not limited to) an audit committee, a nomination committee and a remuneration committee (which can be combined with the nomination committee). The board of directors determines the composition and duties of these committees.

TITLE VII: DELEGATION OF POWERS

Article 26: Day-to-day management – Delegation of powers

The board of directors may appoint one or more managing director(s) and grant them the most extensive powers for the day-to-day management of the company, the representation with regard to this day-to-day management and the implementation of the decisions of the board of directors.

The board of directors and the managing director(s) may grant special and certain powers of attorney to one or more persons of their choice.

TITLE VIII: REPRESENTATION OF THE COMPANY

Article 27: Representation of the company

Without prejudice to the general representative powers of the board of directors as a collective body, the company shall be validly represented in and out of court by two directors, acting jointly.

As to the day-to-day management, the company is also validly represented in and out of court by one or more persons charged with the day-to-day management, acting alone or jointly in accordance with the delegation resolution of the board of directors;

In addition, the company is validly represented by special attorneys-in-fact acting within the limits of the powers granted to them.

When the company is appointed director, manager or liquidator of another company, it appoints amongst its shareholders, directors or members of the personnel a permanent representative who shall be charged with the performance of the mandate in the name of and for account of the company.

TITLE IX: AUDITS

Article 28: Statutory auditors

The audit of the financial situation, the financial statements and the validity of the transactions to be reported in the financial statements, must be entrusted to one or more statutory auditors.

The statutory auditors are appointed and remunerated in accordance to the rules set forth in the Belgian Companies and Associations Code.

TITLE X: GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS

Article 29: Annual, special and extraordinary general shareholders' meeting

The annual general shareholders' meeting must each year be convened on the last Thursday of May at ten o'clock.

If this day would be a Belgian public holiday, the annual general shareholders' meeting shall be held on the previous business day. In these articles of association, "business day" shall mean any calendar day, with the exception of Saturdays, Sundays and Belgian public holidays.

At any time a special or extraordinary general shareholders' meeting can be convened to discuss any matter falling within its powers.

Each general shareholders' meeting is held at the registered office of the company or at any other location indicated in the notice convening the meeting.

Article 30: Meeting - powers - obligation

The board of directors and any statutory auditor of the company may, acting alone, convene a general shareholders' meeting. They must convene the annual general shareholders' meeting on the day determined by these articles of association.

The board of directors and statutory auditor are obliged to convene the general shareholders' meeting within three (3) weeks when shareholders representing at least one tenth of the share capital so request, with at least the items on the agenda proposed by the shareholders concerned.

In the notice convening the general shareholders' meeting, other items may be added on the agenda than those included therein by the shareholders.

Article 31: Notices convening shareholders' meetings

The notices convening general shareholders' meetings must be issued in accordance with the applicable legal provisions.

Convening notices drawn up by the board of directors may be validly signed in its name by a person to whom the day-to-day management of the company has been delegated.

Article 32: Admission – Prior formalities

In order to be admitted to and participate to a general shareholders' meeting, shareholders must comply with the relevant registration, notice, filing and other formalities as required by applicable law or as shall be set out (subject to applicable law) in the notice convening the meeting.

The representatives of legal entities have to provide documents showing their capacity as corporate body or special proxy holder.

Natural persons, corporate bodies or proxy holders who participate in the general shareholders' meeting must be able to provide proof of their identity.

Holders of profit-sharing certificates, shares without voting rights, convertible bonds, subscription rights or other securities issued by the company, as the case may be, as well as holders of certificates issued with cooperation of the company representing securities issued by the company, if any, can participate in the general shareholders' meeting insofar as the law or the articles of association allow this and, if applicable, give them the right to participate in the vote. If they wish to participate, they will be subject to the same formalities of prior deposit and notice, of the form and the deposit of a proxy, and of admission, as those to which the shareholders are subject.

Prior to participating to the meeting, the shareholders or their proxies must sign the attendance list, stating :

- a. the identity of the shareholder,
- b. the name of the proxy, and
- c. the number of shares they represent.

Article 33: Representation of shareholders

Notwithstanding the legal provisions with respect to legal representation, each security holder who can participate in the general shareholders' meeting, can be represented at a general shareholders' meeting by a proxy holder who has been granted a handwritten proxy or a proxy on another durable medium recognized by law.

Such proxies must be granted in accordance with the applicable law and/or as set out (in accordance with the applicable law) in the convening notice, as the case may be.

The holders of a proxy must comply with the relevant legal provisions concerning proxies for general shareholders' meetings, as relevant.

The board of directors can establish a form for the proxies. The proxy forms will be made available to the security holders.

Article 34: Bureau

The chairman of the board of directors, or in his absence, a director appointed by the other directors, shall chair the general shareholders' meeting.

The chairman shall appoint a secretary, who may be or may not be a shareholder; the meeting elects one or two tellers.

The persons mentioned in this article constitute the bureau of the meeting.

Article 35: Adjournment of the meeting

The board of directors has the right, during the annual general shareholders' meeting, to adjourn the resolution relating to the approval of the annual accounts for five (5) weeks. This adjournment does not affect the other decisions already taken, unless the general shareholders' meeting decides otherwise in this respect. The next general shareholders' meeting has the right to definitively adopt the annual accounts.

The board of directors also has the right, during the general shareholders' meeting, to adjourn any other general shareholders' meeting once by five (5) weeks. This adjournment does not affect the resolutions already passed by this meeting, unless the general shareholders' meeting decides otherwise in this respect.

At the next general shareholders' meeting, the items on the agenda on which no final decision was taken at the previous general shareholders' meeting will be dealt with further.

Subject to applicable law, additional items on the agenda may be added to the agenda of the next general shareholders' meeting.

Subject to applicable law, the formalities completed in order to attend the first general shareholders' meeting, including registration for the general shareholders' meeting, and, as the case may be, the deposit of proxies, shall remain valid for the second general shareholders' meeting.

Shareholders who were not present or represented at the previous (adjourned) general shareholders' meeting will be admitted to the next general shareholders' meeting, provided that they have complied with the formalities set out in the applicable legal provisions and these articles of association.

Article 36: Decisions on matters not on the agenda - Amendments

Without prejudice to article 7:130 of the Belgian Companies and Associations Code, the general shareholders' meeting cannot validly deliberate or decide on the items that are not included or implicitly contained in the agenda, unless all shareholders are present or represented at the meeting and unanimously agree and if, in the case of a vote by mail, the form authorises a proxy to make such a decision. The required consent is assumed to exist, if no objection is recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Article 37: Voting rights

Each share gives the right to one vote.

If a share is subject to a right of usufruct, the exercise of the voting right attached to this share is exercised by the common representative appointed in accordance with article 11, and, failing a common representative, the voting right is suspended.

The voting rights attached to shares that have been pledged, are exercised by the owner-pledgor.

Article 38: Decision-making at the general shareholders' meeting

The general shareholders' meeting may validly deliberate and pass resolutions regardless of the number of shares present or represented, except in cases where the applicable law requires a certain attendance quorum.

The resolutions of the general shareholders' meeting are validly passed by a simple majority of the votes validly cast at the meeting, except in the cases where applicable law or these articles of association provide for another majority.

In the event votes are tied, the proposal is rejected.

Voting shall occur orally or by calling the names or by show of hands unless the chairman of the meeting thinks it preferable to vote by another method, such as voting slips or electronic means. Shareholders' meetings may be transmitted or broadcast live by telephone conferencing or video conferencing, or any other means of transmission and/or telecommunication.

Article 39: Remote voting or participation

If the convening notice so provides, a shareholder may, prior to the general shareholders' meeting, vote by mail or via electronic means using forms, the contents of which shall be specified in the convening notice and which will be made available to the shareholders.

The form for remote voting shall contain at least the following information: (i) the identity of the shareholder, (ii) the domicile or registered office of the shareholder, (iii) the number of shares or votes with which the shareholder is participating in the vote, (iv) the form of the shares held by the shareholder, (v) the agenda of the general shareholders' meeting and the proposed resolutions, (vi) the term within which the company must receive the form for remote voting, and (vii) the positive or negative vote or the abstention relating to each proposed resolution. Forms that do not indicate a positive or negative vote, or an abstention, are void. The form must bear the shareholder's signature (which may be a digital signature to the extent permitted as evidence by applicable law).

In accordance with applicable law, the dated and signed form for votes by distance must be sent by letter, fax, email or any other means mentioned to the extent permitted as written evidence by applicable law to the company's registered office or to the place indicated in the notice and must reach the company at the latest on the sixth calendar day prior to the general shareholders' meeting concerned. In accordance with applicable law, the board of directors may opt that votes can be cast electronically on, or until the day of, the relevant general shareholders' meeting.

The board of directors may arrange for remote voting to take place electronically via one or more websites. It shall establish the practical procedures for such electronic voting, ensuring that the system used allows for the inclusion of the information referred to in the second paragraph of this article and control of compliance with the prescribed time limits

Article 40: Minutes

The minutes of the general shareholders' meetings are signed by the members of the bureau and by the shareholders who so request.

Copies and excerpts of the minutes of the general shareholders' meeting are signed by two directors acting jointly, by the chairman of the board of directors or by any person to whom powers of the day-to-day management have been delegated.

TITLE XI: CLOSING OF THE FISCAL YEAR – FINANCIAL STATEMENTS – APPLICATION OF PROFITS - DIVIDENDS

Article 41: Fiscal year – Financial statements

The company's fiscal year starts on January 1 and ends on December 31 of each year.

At the end of each fiscal year the books and documents are closed and the board of directors draws up the inventory, as well as the financial statements, in accordance with the applicable legal provisions.

Article 42: Application of the profits

The positive balance on the profit and loss account represents the profit of the company to be allocated.

At least five percent of these profits are deducted to constitute the legal reserve fund until this represents one/tenth of the share capital.

The general shareholders' meeting decides on the allocation of the balance by simple majority vote upon the proposal by the board of directors.

Article 43: Payment of dividends - Payment of interim dividends

The board of directors determines the time and the manner in which dividends will be paid.

The payment of the dividend must occur before the end of the fiscal year in which the dividend has been declared.

The board of directors is granted the power to pay an interim dividend on the result of the current fiscal year.

TITLE XII: WINDING-UP - LIQUIDATION

Article 44: Winding-up

The voluntary winding-up of the company may only be decided by an extraordinary general shareholders' meeting and with due observance of the applicable legal provisions.

After being wound up, the company will continue to exist in law as an entity in law for the purpose of its liquidation until the liquidation is completed.

Article 45: Appointment of liquidators

In accordance with applicable law, the liquidators are appointed by the general shareholders' meeting.

If no liquidators are appointed, the directors in office at the time of the winding-up shall, with respect to third parties, be considered as liquidators as of right without, however, having the powers that the law and these articles of association grant with respect to liquidation transactions to the liquidators appointed in these articles of association, by the general meeting or by the court.

If an entity in law is appointed liquidator, the natural person representing the liquidator in the liquidation must be appointed in the resolution appointing the liquidator. Any amendment to this appointment is to be made public in the annexes to the Belgian Official Gazette.

Article 46: Powers of the liquidators

The liquidators are authorised to carry out all transactions as permitted by applicable law, without the requirement of a prior authorisation by the general shareholders' meeting, unless the general shareholders' meeting decides otherwise by a simple majority vote.

Article 47: Method of liquidation

In accordance with applicable law, after the payment of all debts, charges and expenses of the liquidation or after the consignment of the sums necessary for that purpose, the liquidators distribute the net assets in cash or in securities to the shareholders in proportion of the shares that they own.

Article 48: Special provisions s for companies in liquidation

Any change of the name of a company in liquidation is prohibited.

All documents issued by a dissolved company must mention the fact that it is in liquidation.

A resolution to move the registered office of a company in liquidation cannot be carried out without being approved by the enterprise court in the jurisdiction of which the company has its registered office. The approval is requested by the liquidator by means of a writ of request. A transcript of the decision regarding the approval by the court needs to be attached to the deed that is filed in connection with the move of the registered office.

TITLE XIII: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 49: Election of domicile

Any director and any person delegated to the day-to-day management may elect domicile at the company's registered office, for all matters affecting the performance of his or her duties. The directors and liquidators who are domiciled abroad, are deemed to elect domicile for the entire duration of their mandate at the registered office of the company, where all summons and notifications concerning the business of the company and the responsibility for their management may be served on them.

Article 50: Governing law

All matters not expressly determined in these articles of association, or to the legal provisions from which is not validly derogated in these articles of association are subject to, the provisions of the Belgian Companies and Associations Code and other provisions of Belgian law.

Article 51: Personnel

Unless the context requires otherwise or unless otherwise defined in these articles of association, for the purposes of these articles of association, "personnel" shall have the meaning defined in Article 1:27 of the Belgian Companies and Associations Code.
